Day 1

On arrival into Zurich airport, you are met by your tour escort and taken to your motor coach. From Zurich you travel the approximate 2 hours south east to the town of Davos in the heart of the Swiss Alps. Once a famous health resort, Davos is now well known for holding the World Economic Forum and being one of Switzerland's premier ski resorts during the winter months. A 4km strip of land, Davos is made up of Davos Dorf and Davos Platz; the two villages are almost linked by a vast array of shops, restaurants and other amenities. Your hotel is the Central Sporthotel, in the quieter part of Davos - Davos Platz and within walking distance of the town's amenities. Overnight Davos (D)

Day 2

Leave for a day excursion to Chur, the main town in the canton of Graubunden. The town looks back on 5000 years of settlement history, and is Switzerland's oldest town. This lively small bishop's town was developed to become the cultural and economic centre of the Grisons, thanks to its excellent location on key routes through the Alps. Stroll through the Gothic old town dating from the 15th/16th century and visit the 800 yr. old cathedral. Overnight Davos (BD)

Day 3

Today is at your leisure (no coach available today). Explore the local area of Davos and neighboring Klosters with your inclusive card, which allows you to use the local transport free of charge. It also offers you reductions on local attractions and museums so make the most of what the card has to offer. Overnight Davos (BD)

Day 4

The day you have been waiting for – the highlight of your trip – a 4-hr. journey on the Bernina Express from Davos to Tirano in Italy! The narrow-gauge Bernina Express connects northern and southern Europe and offers a spectacular means of crossing the Alps. The route runs through the ancient landscape of Switzerland's beautiful Grisons/Graubünden region and provides essential links to the Italian-speaking population in the south. Beginning in Chur, the oldest town in Switzerland, the route travels south along 76 miles of track, through 55 tunnels and 196 bridges including the spectacular Landwasser Viaduct. The route meanders past glaciers, an alpine garden and rushing mountain streams, passes through the 5,955 foot long Albula Tunnel and climbs over the Bernina Pass to more than 7,000 feet) before crossing the Italian border to arrive in the village of Tirano. On arrival in Tirano, you are met by your motor coach and taken to the town of Iseo. One of the lesser-known lakes in northern Italy, Lake Iseo is just as captivating as its larger neighbors. The attractive southern end of the lake is both our base and the location of the pretty town of Iseo, which has a charming centre and lots of typical Italian character. This is a beautiful and scenic base for exploring the surrounding region or just relaxing and enjoying the stunning scenery. Located in the Franciacorta Valley, the area is known as one of the best wine growing areas in the north of Italy and there are numerous vineyards and cellars to visit. Your hotel is the Iseolago hotel, located outside of town. Overnight Iseo (BD)

Day 5

Enjoy a trip to one of the oldest wineries in Franciacorta today, Barone Pizzini. The winery's premises are in the 18th Century Borgo, with the production cellar a few hundred yards away. Enjoy a visit of the cellar and the wine tasting museum, followed by the opportunity to try the local wine before making your way back to Iseo. Spend the afternoon in the pretty centre of Iseo with its lakeside promenade and various shops. There are plenty of outdoor terraces to sip a cappuccino whilst enjoying the boats sail by. Overnight Iseo (BD)

Day 6

Pay a visit to the neighboring Lake Garda for the day. Lake Garda is undoubtedly one of the most scenic and culturally diverse lakes in northern Italy. Why not take a boat trip from one part of the lake to the other -- Riva del Garda to Limone or a trip from Desanzano to Sirmione? Enjoy the wonderful town of Malcesine, with its stunning castle and cobbled streets. For spectacular views across the region take the cable car ride from Malcesine to the summit of Monte Baldo. Overnight Iseo (BD)

Day 7

Sadly your wonderful tour has come to an end as you transfer to Milan airport for your onward flight. (B)
